PROVIDENCE, R. I.: NARRAGANSETT HISTORICAL PUBLISHING COMPANY. 1903.
INTRODUCTION.

With this volume we beg to present the Thirteenth volume of the Vital Record of Rhode Island and we believe that this will prove as interesting as any one of the previous volumes of the series. We have finished the Deaths from the Providence Journal and have commenced those from the Providence Gazette. These bear date from 1762 to 1830 and will supply a long felt want to the genealogical student. The public records have little or nothing in the way of deaths, and many burials have no stones with the record upon them, especially at the period covered in the earlier portion.

Some of our friendly critics think we have too many notes attached to our announcement of the death. We are always ready to receive advice but we still believe our notes will be received with pleasure by most of our readers, and particularly those notes that most decidedly place the person named and the locality of the death.

With the respective newspapers we have placed an extended note regarding the publication of the same.

We still have occasion to feel thankful to the General Assembly that they have in their wisdom been pleased to extend their courtesy towards this volume as they have so cheerfully done in the case of those volumes before published. We have also occasion to thank those officers having in charge the file of newspapers from which these notes were taken. Finally we thank our friends, who have stood by us in our work, for their kind assistance and encouragement of our labor.

Please bear in mind in reading our dates that in the original published list many have no date of death assigned while many others have the date distinctly given. In the former case the word Journal or Gazette before the date means that in the paper of this date the death was announced, the exact date not being given. Again the reader will be much surprised to note how long a time elapses in many cases between the date of the death and its announcement. The people in those days were not so prompt in such matters as they are today.

We close by trusting that the reader will find a pleasure in the perusal of this volume, as well as feel that he has been well compensated for his time spent in our company.

PROVIDENCE JOURNAL.

Deaths Published from January 3, 1820, to December 31, 1829.

The present series of newspapers known as the "Providence Journal" began with an issue on January 3, 1820, and has been published semi-weekly on Monday and Thursday until the present time. On July 21, 1829, the Daily Journal was established. The numbers of the Daily Journal from July 21 to December 31 are not on file in the Journal office, but the file there commences with January 1, 1830. The file of the semi-weekly, January 3, 1820, to December 31, 1829, in the Journal office is not complete, nor is that in the library of the Historical Society. With the aid of the two, however, a complete record has been obtained.

The deaths from A to R were published in our preceding volume XII of the Vital Records. The present installment therefore commences with the letter S.

The Providence Gazette.

DEATHS.
THE PROVIDENCE GAZETTE.

The Providence Gazette was the first newspaper printed in Providence. The first number was issued October 20, 1762, the last October 8, 1825.

Its full title when first published was The Providence Gazette and Country Journal containing the freshest advices both Foreign and Domestic. January 5, 1782, this last caption was dropped. January 10, 1795, and Country Journal followed, but was restored Jan. 12, 1811. March 1, 1817, it was dropped again and there was substituted and Moral, Political and Commercial Advertiser. When it became a semi-weekly in January, 1820, it was known as The Providence Gazette only until it was merged with the American Oct. 11, 1825, and then known as The Rhode Island American and Providence Gazette. This paper lasted until 1832.

It was a weekly until 1820, and thereafter until October 8, 1825, a semi-weekly. While a weekly its publication day was Saturday, except from October 4, 1789, to January 24, 1791, when it was Wednesday. From Saturday, May 11, 1765, until August 9, 1766, its publication was suspended. While a semi-weekly the publication days, in 1820, were Monday and Thursday; from 1821 to October 8, 1825, Wednesday and Saturday.

Of these numbers we have been so fortunate as to have seen all but Nos. 139, 149, and 502.

At the October meeting of the Rhode Island Historical Society in 1897 Hon. Amos Perry read a paper on this subject, which was printed in the Quarterly.

In this paper he says that the first editor and proprietor was William Goddard; that from August 9, 1766, Sarah Goddard & Co. were the publishers: from Sept. 19, 1767, Sarah Goddard and John Carter. After November 12, 1768, John Carter was sole proprietor until November 9, 1797, when William Wilkinson was a partner. with Carter and so continued until May 11, 1799, when Carter was again sole proprietor. February 19, 1814, Hugh H. Brown and William H. Wilson were proprietors. After June 22, 1816, Brown was sole proprietor, until January 3, 1820, when he took Walter R. Danforth as a partner. When the paper was merged with the American in October, 1825, Brown was again sole proprietor and A. G. Greene, editor.

When Mr. Brown made this change in his business he sold only the newspaper portion and still continued in the business as a job printer.

When the paper was first printed it was advertised as "Printed opposite the Court House." While it lived it had four different locations on the east side but was removed from one of these places to another several times in its career.

In this newspaper is a large amount of rich historical matter. It is the only newspaper in the State of whose issues during the War of the Revolution we have today a complete file. Its position was strongly in favor of the cause of the Colony. The subject matter in its columns was well handled and its literary style was of a high order.

Hon. Zachariah Allen had the largest and best collection of the files of this paper in the State. He presented this to the Rhode Island Historical Society who have added considerable to it. They now lack approximately 75 numbers. The Providence Journal has the next best collection. The John Carter Brown Library and S. S. Rider have collections of the earlier numbers. The American Antiquarian Society of Worcester, Mass., have a few only. From these latter files we have been able to gain access to all but three numbers as above stated. Our thanks are hereby extended to the custodians of these files for the favor of perusal.

In 1892 Mr. Albert Holbrook made a selection from the Deaths and Marriages herein recorded of such family names and events as he was personally interested in. These he copied into a book which is now in the possession of the Rhode Island Historical Society.

In our collection following we have taken every death and marriage recorded where the names were given. To do this, it is needless to remark, has cost us a large amount of time and patience.
